SEA SUNDAY

Today is a special Day of Prayer for all seafarers. Most of the goods in our shops have come here by sea.. Many of the seamen are Catholics – particularly from the Philippines – and they spend many months separated from their families and church communities. The Apostleship of the Sea (Stella Maris) offers spiritual and practical support when they are visiting our ports. The second collection today is in aid of this work.

FATHER PETER

Is on leave until 24th July. Father Gordon will be looking after the parish.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2025

Applications to join the next First Communion Class (those in Y3 from September) need to be in before the end of the school term. Forms are available in each church.

PARISH SAFEGUARDING —Volunteer DBS Checks

Hello all,

This is a reminder for our parish volunteers working with children, young people, or vulnerable adults, that they need to have an enhanced DBS check.

This should be renewed every 3 years.

The process is straightforward and offered at no cost to volunteers.

DBS checks issued on behalf of other organisations may be valid for your volunteer role in the parish but will still need to be verified.

Details of the process and the Diocesan commitment to safeguarding can be found on the Diocese website, <https://www.rcdea.org.uk/safeguarding/>.

As your Parish Safeguarding Representative, it is my role to help you through the process.

Please contact me via email safeguardingkl@gmail.com or mobile 07971955335 to arrange to complete your DBS application.
