THANK YOU

To everyone who worked so hard to prepare our Easter liturgies – to those who cleaned and prepared the churches, those who served, read, sang and played and those who arranged the wonderful flowers. It was a worthy offering to the Lord and good to see such numbers at mass.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNIONS

Please pray for our children who will be making their First Holy Communion next Sunday. The Mass will be in King's Lynn Minster at 3pm with a rehearsal in Holy Family Church on Saturday at 11am. Our original venue of St. Nicholas Chapel became unavailable at the last minute and we are grateful to the Minster for giving us a time in their busy schedule.

WALSINGHAM PILGRIMS

On Monday afternoon we welcome 32 pilgrims from Birmingham and Wolverhampton who are calling in on their way home from Walsingham.

BEN'S CHARITY BIKE-RIDE

Dear parishioners.

My son, Ben Gore, has taken on a crazy challenge..

On Saturday 13th of April he is cycling from King's Lynn to Istanbul (2800 miles) in aid of "Time Norfolk", a charity who offer free counselling to those who have suffered pregnancy loss, (in memory of the sad loss of his niece, Riley).

To support him I am holding a cream tea on Monday 22nd of April, 2pm, and a Coffee morning on Monday 10th of June, 11am. If you would like to come to either please let me know either by email (marypursglove17@gmail.com) or tel 07891 725748

Regards Mary Pursglove.
