DEACON SHAUN MORRISON'S WEEKLY BULLETIN

Holy Saturday — March 30, 2024

Dear Friends,

On this Holy Saturday as we wait for the joy of Easter I wanted to share this passage from the Walk with Me booklet:

Today, we are silent and still. The Lord is in the tomb; death appears to have him in its grip. Our Lenten journey has been a journey to the solemn moment. We pray in awe and adoration as the Lord of Life sleeps-only to shortly awake. The mystery of this holy night is that we died with Christ on the cross. We are immersed, through baptism, into the Lord's death and resurrection. Tonight and every time we receive the Lord in the Eucharist, we receive grace and strength to resist evil, to die to self and rise to Christ to new life. Tonight we renew the promises of our baptism and make a new commitment to renounce evil and follow Christ. For we count ourselves dead to sin but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

Father, tonight we light the Easter Candle and remember that Jesus descended into the depths of hell to set prisoners free. The jaws of death swallowed him up, but its grip could not hold the Lord of Life, the King of glory.

The Easter Vigil is at 8pm this evening at Our Lady's Church .
