RED MOUNT PROCESSION

Today (Sunday) is our annual Procession of Our Lady of Walsingham to the Red Mount Chapel at 3pm followed by Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and Tea in the garden. This tradition which began in 1897 is an opportunity to publicly declare our Faith and to honour Our Blessed Lady. Please come in good numbers and for those unable to walk there is the opportunity to remain in church and say the Rosary. Help with the tea will be appreciated.

WALSINGHAM PILGRIMS

Last Saturday we welcomed two young men from Leeds who were walking to Walsingham. This Friday we will welcome a group of 25 young people from London who will have an early Mass in the Holy House before setting out on their walk.
